FACULTY

MISS CAROL BRIDGEFORTH

French, Spanish, English

The only way to have a friend
Is to be one.

MR. FRANK BURNS

Biology, Health

When you are looking for what I'm looking for,
You have to look in strange places.
Men can never look at the sun, except downwards,
At his reflection in things of earth.
If he is reflected in a dirty puddle,
He is still the sun.

MRS. MARSHA CHAPMAN

English, Speech

Real isn't how you are made,
It's a thing that happens to you.
When you are real,
You don't mind being hurt.

MRS EMMA VILLEGAS

Spanish

I never came to you my
Friend and went away
Without some new
Enrichment of the heart.

MISS SUSAN SAKOWICZ

Yesterday is but a dream,
And tomorrow is only a vision,
But today well-lived makes every yesterday

And every tomorrow,
A vision of hope.

But for those few who found the time to fit me in,
Schedule me somehow within their crowded lives,
They are remembered daily.

MRS. ADELE METZ

You ought not to have
Or to love a friend
For what she will give you.
A friend should be
Loved freely for himself,
And not for anything else.

MR. JOSEPH PICARO

Dean of Students

You can make more friends
In two months
By becoming really interested
In other people,
Than you can in two years
By trying to get other people
Interested in you.

MR. GRANT QUINBY

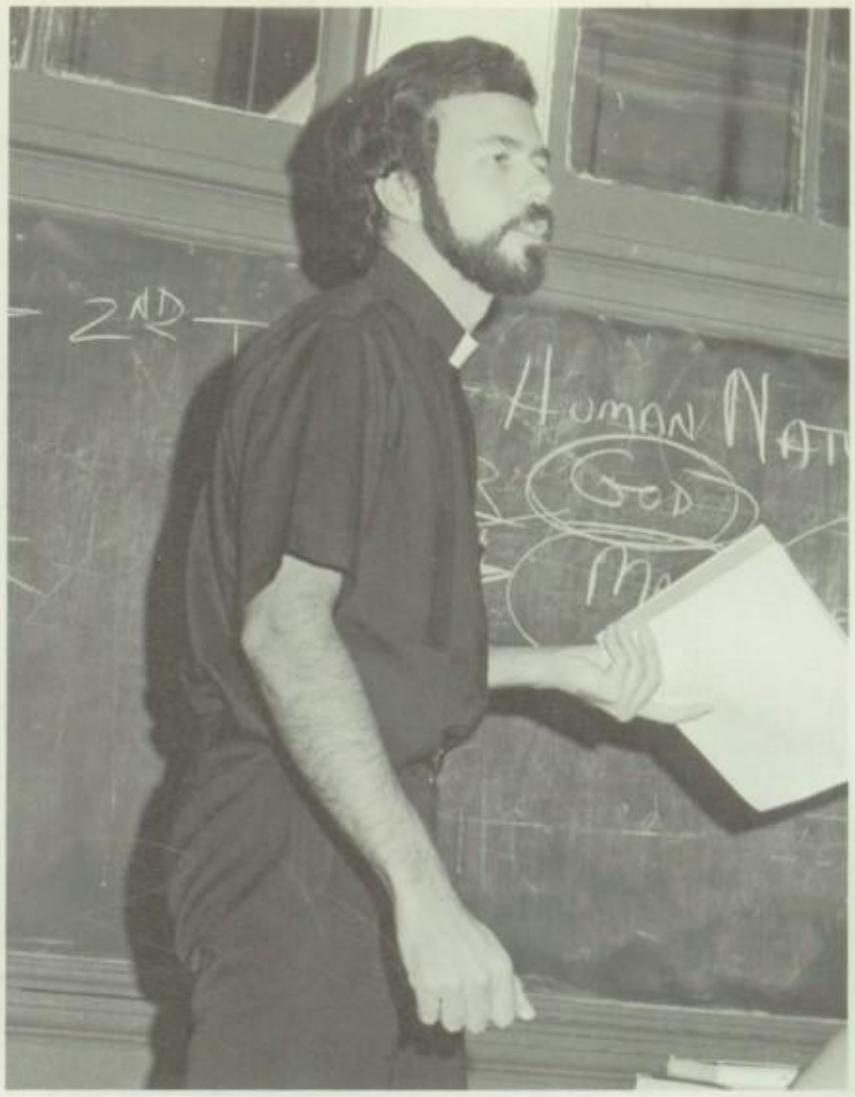
For it is life,
The very life of life,
In its brief course
Lie all the varieties and realities
Of your existence.

FR. JOHN DONOHUE

Religion

Lives are like balloons
You must put something in them to
See any results.



FR. RONALD MARCZEWSKI

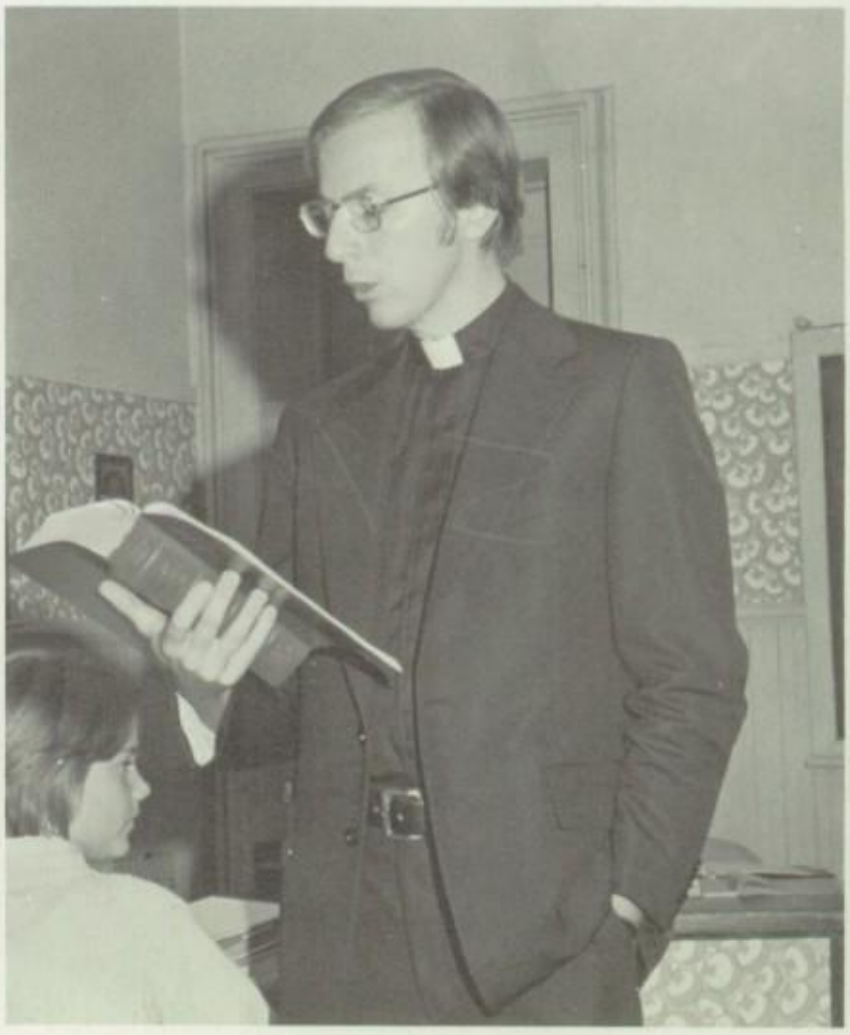
But himself to God.



FR. GEORGE GILLEN

I want to say something to all of you

Who have become a part of the fabric of my life

The color and texture which you have brought

Into my being have become a song

And I want to sing it forever.

There is an energy in us which makes things happen

When the paths of other persons touch ours

And we have to be there and let it happen.

When the time of our particular sunset comes

Our "thing", our accomplishment, won't really

Matter a great deal, but the clarity and care

With which we have loved others will speak

With vitality of the great gift of life

We have been for each other.
